

CELEBRATION OF WORSHIP

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 8, 2010

The acolytes in today's worship bring the light of Christ into the sanctuary at the beginning of the service. At the end of worship, as we are called into service in our church, across our city, and beyond, the light of Christ leads us out into the world

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

Silent Meditation

If people are naked and lack daily food, and one of you says to them "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet does not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.
- James 2:15-17

Welcome and Announcements

Prelude Be Still, My Soul Arr: Douglas Trowbridge

The Lighting of the Candles

Choral Introit Praise to the Lord Dale Wood

*Processional Hymn 481

Praise the Lord, God's Glories Show Llanfair

*Call to Worship from Psalm 50

The mighty one, God the Lord, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Our God comes and does not keep silence, before him is a devouring fire and a mighty tempest all around him.

He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that he may judge his people:

"Gather to me my faithful ones,
who made covenant with me by sacrifice!"

Yet I will take no bull from your house, or goats from your fold.

Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.

"Those who bring thanksgiving as their sacrifice honor me;
to those who go the right way I will show the salvation of God"

Let us worship God!

The Lord's name be praised!

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Listening God,
you are the prayer-teacher, the prayer-prompter,
and the giver of every good gift.

We confess that we are casual and perfunctory in our praying,
often without expecting a response.

We separate our petitions for forgiveness from the need to forgive others;

We resist the discipline of prayer that would change us,
and turn us outward with a persistent concern for others,
and sincere intercession for the whole world.

Hear our request for forgiveness, and grant us, as well, a forgiving spirit.
Lord, teach us to pray.

Congregational Response 599 Jesus, Remember Me
(Silence for personal prayer)

Assurance of Forgiveness

*Response to Grace

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Gloria Patri

The Invitation

Jesus said, "Come to me, all you that are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled."

All who put their trust in Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to come to this, His table.

Let us come that we might find refreshment and rest for our souls.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

O God of Jeremiah, of the prophets, your Word is truth.

Your Word plucks up and breaks down,
it destroys and it overthrows, it builds and it plants.

You are watching over your Word to do it. Let your truth be known in all the earth.

Let your people declare in word and deed your Word that shatters and reforms.

(singing) Only Thou art holy, there is none beside

Thee, perfect in power, in love and purity.

O Word of God Incarnate, Lord Jesus Christ, you embody steadfast love and mercy. Yet you cleared the house of God of money changers and declared woes to the self-righteous, to the rich, and to the religious elite.

You came to judge sin, but also to overcome it.

You came to pluck up and break down, to destroy and to overthrow,
to build and to plant.

By your suffering and crucifixion you defeated the power of sin and death.

You freely give your reforming love to any who respond in faith.

Dying you destroyed our death.

Rising you restored our life.

Living you secure the future.

(singing) Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty,

God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

O Holy Spirit, by whom the truth shall make us free;

In revealing the truth about ourselves and our world, may we confess our sin and be forgiven by your grace. Thus may we receive these gifts of the bread and the cup as the broken body and shed blood of Christ without sin and become the body of Christ, the church.

We pray for all who are in need of your grace and mercy today.

For the sick and the mournful. For the poor and destitute.

For the spiritually troubled and for those anxious in spirit.

For those named, those known secretly in our hearts, and those known only to you.

(singing) Holy, holy, holy Lord God Almighty,

Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be. Amen.

Distribution of the Bread and Cup

(You are invited to eat the bread as soon as you are served as a sign of your individual communion with God. Please hold the cup until all have been served that we might drink together as a sign of our communion with each other.)

Prayer after Communion

Merciful God, as we have received the good gifts of Christ, may our celebration move in the strength of song and joy and fellowship, beyond song and joy and fellowship and take on tangible substance for all people, whose need is ours to alleviate, whose loneliness is ours to relieve, whose hunger is ours to satisfy, through the all-sufficient love of Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Choral Dismissal The Lord Whom We Love Kurt Kaiser

*Recessional Hymn 434

Today We Are All Called to Be Disciples Kingsfold

*Benediction

*Passing The Peace of Christ

Postlude O Day of Rest and Gladness John Diercks
